S. L. TRIPPE, Sec'y.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let its support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayettevville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 28, 1866.

Wednesday Evening, Dec. 19, 1866.

The Insolence of the Standard.

In another column, in connection with the proceedings in the House, on yesterday, we insert the articles of yesterday's Standard, which gave rise to the discussion. That paper it will be seen is quite abusive of the Legislature, because it dared to institute an investigation into the oft repeated charge, made by the Standard and others, that the Union men of this State were persecuted.

Our friends have often insisted that we should never notice in our columns either the Standard or its editor. This advice has been given us upon the supposition that both were without influence. It is palpable that this is a mistake. Who is responsible for the agitation and turmoil which has been kept up in this State, since the war closed, falsely charging that the Union men are persecuted? Who is responsible for the base slanders, that our people are disloyal—that our people are only restrained by fear from open rebellion against the Government—that the State government is in the hands of secessionists? Who is responsible for the false and wicked impression made upon Congress and the Northern people, in regard to the people and officials of North Carolina? Is not the Standard the source whence all these slanders and false charges emanate? More than this, these slanders are credited by many who ought to know better.

The charge made by Mr. Blythe, of Henderson, in the House, that the Union men were persecuted, had been made repeatedly by the Standard. We had denied it over and over again, and had challenged and defied that paper repeatedly, to give the public one scintilla of evidence in proof of his charges. That paper has failed, to this hour, to give any proof, but continued to reiterate its charges. We pledged ourselves to aid in every way to bring to justice any man, who could be shown to be guilty of this charge.

Mr. Blythe repeated this charge in the House of Commons, and Mr. Waugh, of Surry, very properly proposed, in good faith, to have the charge investigated by one of the most judicious committees in the House—the Judiciary committee, with the view of bringing the guilty to justice. The committee undertook the work in good faith. They called upon Mr. Blythe and others who had given "aid and comfort" to the Standard's charges, and so far as the investigation has gone, we learn that not a particle of evidence has been produced in support of the charges. Evidence it is true has appeared, which clearly convicts these "agitators" of being the "persecutors," and hence the fluttering and madness of the Standard. Now as W. W. Holden has been the chief maker and ventilator of these slanderous charges, we suggest that the committee summon the aforesaid Mr. Holden before it. Give him an opportunity on oath, to make good his charges, or to stand forth before the world, as the libeller of his own people. He relies upon his influence with the Congress, to cover up his faults and wickedness and to protect him in his wicked designs, but there are men in Congress of the Republican party, who will not justify or protect palpable falsehood and mischief. We want the truth and nothing but the truth and the whole truth to be laid before the Congress and the world. We are willing that all our people shall be judged by the strictest rules of truth and justice. We would cover up no fault or wickedness of any one. If any of our people have or are disposed to persecute or injure in any way our fellow-citizens, who claim to be better Union men than others, let their conduct be ferretted out and brought to justice.

GEN. COLSTON'S LECTURE.—Those of our citizens, who failed to hear Gen. Colston's Lecture, on Monday evening, at the Capitol, missed a rare luxury. The subject—"Personal reminiscences of Stonewall Jackson," and a critical analysis of his military character—was most attractive in itself; and the Lecturer's relations, personal and military, to the great Chieftain, and his own prestige as a gallant soldier, enabled him to handle it ably and successfully.—Though the Lecture occupied more than two hours in the delivery, the interest of the audience was enchained to the last moment—varied only by frequent demonstrations of applause.

We trust that this Lecture may be repeated, under the auspices of the Memorial Association. We are anxious that all our towns-people should hear it, for their own sakes; for we do not hesitate to pronounce the Lecture, in simple, unaffected, genial narrative, in occasional touching pathos and eloquence, in historical research, and in just appreciation of the character of Jackson, equal to any of the productions that have appeared in connection with our great struggle.

We should be pleased to say more of Gen. Colston's admirable effort, did our time and limits permit.

BASE BALL MATCH.—We have just the space to say, that the juvenile clubs of this city, the "Stonewall" and "Carolina," will have a match game to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the ground used by the Pioneer Club.

MR. DAVIS' SPEECH.—The manly, able and truthful speech of J. J. Davis, Esq., of Franklin, on yesterday, will be read with interest. It will be endorsed by sixty or seventy thousand voters in the State.

The N. C. annual Conference of the African M. E. Church, South, is in session in Newbern, Bishop J. J. Clinton presiding.

We are requested to state that Mr. Morrisett, the Commoner from Camden, has been kept from his seat in the Legislature for more than a week at his room at the Yarbrough House.

Senate—Last Night's Session.

The session last night was an important one. We had no reporter present, but have learned that the Senate passed the bill to aid in the completion of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, also the bill to extend the Fayetteville (Coalfields) Western R. R. to the N. C. R. R. on their second reading, and the bill donating the Land Scrip given the State by Congress, to the University, on its third reading. The latter, it will be seen, met with strong opposition in the House to-day.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Judge Fowle is holding a special term of the Superior Court of Wake, the present week, in this city.

PARDON.—Among the recent pardons granted by the President, we are glad to see the name of Gen. M. W. Ransom, of this State.

To the General Assembly of the State of N. C.:

I deem it proper to announce as I now do, before the close of this session, my grateful acceptance of the high office of United States Senator to which I have been called by the joint vote of the Assembly.

It is deemed proper at this time also to state, that I purpose before the close of the adjourned session and prior to the fourth of March, to resign my position as Speaker of the State Senate and representative in that body from the County of Craven. To the end that another person may be elected Speaker, and if need be, Senator for the County.

After consultation with friends in and out of the Assembly this course has been decided upon as most proper and convenient, and as entirely consistent with the wishes of my constituents.

With the highest respect,
MATTHIAS E. MANLY.

On motion of Mr. Leach the rules were suspended and the bill for the relief of wounded soldiers was taken up passed its several readings and ordered to be enrolled. (This bill provides for those who cannot receive any relief from the original resolution on the subject.)

On motion of Mr. Clark the vote was reconsidered by which a resolution from the House relative to raising a Joint committee to investigate the books &c., of the North Carolina R. R. was rejected on yesterday, the resolution was amended and concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Speed, the bill relating to the Insane Asylum, was made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

RAILROAD BILLS.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday having been set apart for the consideration of Railroad, bills said bills came up in order as follows:

A bill to enhance the value of the bonds to be issued to complete the Western North Carolina Railroad, on its second reading. On motion of Mr. Wilson the Ayes and Nayes were called and the bill passed by a vote of 36 Ayes 15 Nays. Mess. Avery and Love urged the passage of the bill.

A bill to amend the Charter of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road Company passed its second reading.

Bill to grant aid to the Cheraw & Coal Field Rail Road Company, was amended on motion of Mr. Jones, and was rejected on its second reading by a vote of 34 to 9. (Messrs. Jones and Richardson urged the passage of the bill, and Messrs. Hall and Wilson, opposed it.)

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail Road Company now known as the Wilmington and Weldon Road. Passed its third reading.

Bill to enable the Fayetteville or Western Rail Road Company to complete its road to some point on the N. C. Rail Road, on its third reading this bill was discussed at considerable length. Messrs. McLean, Hall and Leach, urging its passage, and Messrs. Wilson and Moore opposed it before coming to a vote the Senate adjourned until 7½ o'clock to-night on motion of Mr. Respass.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson of the Presbyterian Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Waugh, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances reported back, a bill for the relief of Jas. S. Snow, Sheriff of Halifax county, and a resolution in favor of maimed soldiers, recommending their passage.

Mr. Kenan, from the Judiciary Committee reported back a bill to punish unlawful hunting, recommending that it do not pass.—

Also favorably from same committee, a bill to give Buncombe Superior Court entire jurisdiction of Buncombe Turnpike Road.

Mr. Cowan, for the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported back favorably, a bill to amend the charter of the Plaster Banks and Saltworks Railroad, and a bill to authorize certain counties to subscribe for stock in the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad.

Mr. Harper, for the Finance Committee, reported back a bill to raise revenue, with amendments; also a bill to regulate taxation by the County courts, recommending their passage.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from Hon. M. E. Manly, indicating his acceptance of the office of U. S. Senator, and his intention to resign the position of Speaker of the Senate, at an early day. Sent to the Senate.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Rosebro introduced a resolution to raise a committee to inquire into alleged inefficiency of the artificial limbs furnished by the State to disabled soldiers.

By Mr. Long; a resolution in favor of Saml. Eagle, a maimed soldier. (To allow commutation in lieu of an artificial limb.)

By Mr. McRae, a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Richmond County. (Extending the time for the return of taxes.)

A message was received from the Senate transmitting an engrossed bill to transfer the land scrip, donated by the United States, for the establishment of an Agricultural College in North Carolina. (The bill proposes to transfer the scrip to the Trustees of the University.]

Mr. Crawford, of Macon, moved a suspension of the rules, that the bill might have its second readings.

Mr. Russ opposed the motion, being opposed to the bill. There were other meritorious institutions in the State besides Chapel Hill.

Mr. Patton thought the bill should be passed at once. A telegram had been received here, announcing the passage of a resolution by one House of Congress withdrawing the donation. The transier proposed by the bill,—a transfer to a legal corporation, would raise a question of right, to be tested by the Courts.

Messrs. Boyd, Hodnett and Blythe opposed the transfer of the scrip to the University, believing that this appropriation, the rich alone would be benefitted, and the original purpose of the donation would be defeated, or inadequately carried out. Mr. Foard also opposed the bill.

Messrs. Morehead, Long and Kenan defended the University and favored the bill.

After some further discussion, the motion to suspend the rules was withdrawn.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Bradsher on yesterday—prohibiting the introduction of new bills during the present week, was read and laid on the table. (The Reporter (through inadvertence) attributed the introduction of this resolution, in yesterday's proceedings, to Mr. Morrisett, who is confined to his room by serious illness.)

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House proceeded to consider the bill to exempt from seizure under execution of attachment, certain personal property therein named, and to provide a homestead.

Mr. Allen addressed the House in support of the bill, which he characterized as being emphatically a bill for the relief of the people.

The bill passed its second reading, and was then put upon its third reading, under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Westmoreland offered an amendment as an additional section, to the effect that the members of this General Assembly, for the further relief of the dear people, donate to them their per diem.

Mr. McNair moved to lay the amendment on the table, the effect of the motion (if adopted) being to lay the bill on the table. The motion did not prevail.

The question recurring on the amendment, Mr. Peebles suggested that the further consideration of the bill be postponed until the first Thursday of the next session. He was in favor of the bill, but did not think it went far enough. He favored a homestead restricted as to quantity not as to value. There was no need of haste. The postponement would enable members to consult their constituents and act advisably.

Mr. Richardson urged immediate action upon the bill. Ample time had been given members for a thorough consideratiom of its provisions. It was introduced a fortnight since, and had been upon the desks for several days in a printed form. The bill was almost identical with the law which had been in operation for the last twenty years in the state of Mississippi, where it had been found to work well.

Messrs. Long and McNair opposed the bill as savoring of repudiation.

The motion of Mr. Peebles to postpone further consideration of the bill until next session prevailed.

Mr. Davis moved to reconsider this vote.

Mr. Waugh moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. Not agreed to.

The question recurring, the vote postponing the bill was reconsidered.

The amendment offered by Mr. Westmoreland was rejected.

Amendments offered by Mr. Durham were adopted to strike out in line 2 of section 3, the words "having a family," and to add the following section, viz:

"Be it further enacted, that this act shall not affect the rights of dower of those entitled thereto."

The bill then passed its third reading as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Barden, Blair, Blythe, Bowe, Bradsher, Bryson, Chadwick, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Daniel, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Foard, Freeman, Galloway, Garrett, Garriss, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Holderby, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Jordan, Kelsey, Kenan, Latham, of Craven, Lee, May, Martin, McClammy, McGougan, Moore, of Hertford, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Russ, Scott, Smith, of Duplin, Stevenson, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Walker, Waugh, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Yancey, Womble—66.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Baker, Boyd, Brown, Carson, Clements, Gambril, Hinnant, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Jenkins, of Gaston, Lowe, Lyon, McArthur, McNair, McRae, Morehead, Perry, of Wake, Rosebro, Scoggin, Shelton, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Teague, Umstead, Vestal, Westmoreland, Wilson, of Forsyth, York—29.

Mr. Cowan, by leave, introduced the following resolutions with regard to the interest upon the public debt:

Resolved, That the committee on Finance, be instructed to report a bill or bills providing as follows:

1st. For funding the interest of the public debt accruing on the 1st day of January, and prior thereto.

2nd. To authorize and instruct the Public Treasurer to borrow money, by issuing bonds or otherwise, to pay the interest of the public debt, maturing on the first days of April, July and October, 1867.

3rd. To provide, by taxation, for the payment of the interest of the public debt, maturing on the first day of January 1868, and subsequent thereto.

On motion of Mr. Cowan these resolutions were made the special order for the 28th of January next.

An engrossed bill to amend the charter of the town of Morganton, and a bill for the relief of Jas. S. Snow, Sheriff of Halifax county, passed their several readings.

Mr. Cowan, by leave, introduced a bill to incorporate the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Hutchison introduced a bill to allow fees to magistrates in Mecklenburg county and to increase the fees of Constables.

The House concurred in Senate amendments to a resolution raising a commission to investigate the affairs of N. C. Railroad Company.

[The commission authorized to sit during the recess of the General Assembly, and required to report at the next session.]

A bill to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein, reported as a substitute (by the Judiciary committee) for the bill of like title, reported on yesterday from the Relief committee, was made the special order for 12 o'clock M. on Friday next.

The House then adjourned.

Mr. Waugh's Resolution,--Debate in the House on Yesterday.

Mr. Waugh, of Surry, rose to a question of privilege, and requested the Clerk to read from the Standard of the 18th inst., an article, entitled "THE INSOLENCE OF TREASON," animadverting upon the action of the House in summoning Mr. Blythe and others before a committee of the House to give evidence relative to alleged persecution of Union men.

Mr. Waugh stated that Mr. Blythe (in the discussion of the resolutions introduced by Mr. Russ, asserting the loyalty of the State and denying that Union men were persecuted,) said, he could not vote for the resolutions because they were untrue. With a view to punishing these persecutors of Union men, if such there were, he had introduced a resolution requesting an investigation. For this he and those who acted with him, were now assailed and denounced as disloyalists who were attempting to intimidate and brow-beat Union men. He was willing to compare records with the editor of the Standard as a Union man. For one he did not believe that Union men had been persecuted at all, and the investigation had confirmed this belief. He regretted exceedingly the state of feeling that existed, a condition of things for which he was not responsible. He would not pursue the subject further.

The following articles from the Standard were read at Mr. Waugh's request:

THE INSOLENCE OF TREASON.—We learn that Mr. Blythe, of Henderson, has been examined before a Committee of the House of Commons in relation to his statement in open House as to the treatment of loyal Union men in his part of the State. And we also learn that Messrs. Harris and Jenkins, of the Legislature, who recently visited Washington, have also been summoned before a Committee of the House of Commons and interrogated as to their business in Washington!

We regret that these worthy gentlemen consented to appear before this Committee. These examinations constitute a part of the tactics of the disloyalists to intimidate and brow beat Union men. It is the latest exhibition of impudence and arrogance which has marked the proceedings of the present General Assembly, so-called, of this State. But the day of this body is short. A loyal Congress will deal with it good time.

There is a law of this State, we believe, to punish treason against the State. Perhaps the General Assembly will order arrests and trials under this law. They have as much right to do this as they have to interrogate loyal Union men before committees, with a view to intimidate them and to make capital against the Union cause in this State.—Standard.

Since the above was written, we learn that Mr. Jenkins appeared before the committee, but was not examined.

The questions put to Mr. Harris showed that the committee were looking for facts facts to involve Union men in a treasonable conspiracy to overthow the existing State government! What will the Congress of the United States think of this! It is now clear that this disloyal General Assembly, called and held under martial law, is ready to punish as traitors to the State every Union man who has urged Congress to re-organize and superced the existing State government!

WE CALL UPON THE UNION MEN OF THE STATE TO SMAND FIRM. If these traitors dare to proceed further we are confident the Congress will at once sweep them from existence, and they will be held to that condign punishment which they so richly deserve.—Standard.

---

The efforts of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Commons of this State to intimidate and brow beat Messrs. Harris and Jenkins will fail. They are brave, honest, loyal men, and they will conduct themselves accordingly. They are not to be intimidated by traitors.—The day is not distant when the cowardly majority who are attempting to domineer over these gentlemen because of their recent visit to Washington, will meet the fate they deserve.—Standard.

Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, said he had read with pain and mortification the article in the Standard which had been read from the desk. He had been uniformly an outspoken Union man, but was now denounced, with all others who voted for Mr. Waugh's resolution, as disloyal to the Union, when the object of that resolution was to punish the perpetrators of wrong upon Union men, if any such wrongs had been committed. When the writer of this article about the "insolence of treason" was voting secession in Raleigh, he as an humble farmer, had been earnestly pleading for the Union in his county. From that time to the present he had been consistent in his devotion to the Union.

If, Mr. Hodnett said, Union men are persecuted, why am I and my colleagues here? We are all three Union men. A majority of my constituents were advocates of the war, but we are sent here by our people as a pledge of their loyalty and devotion to the Union. My present object is to maintain the unity and rights of the States under the Constitution and to preserve unimpaired the whole Union.

Mr. Jenkins, of Gaston, said there was manifest disposition to persecute Union men. This disposition had been shown in this House during the present session. Union men had been snubbed and sneered at continually. He adverted to the examination of Mr. Blythe and Col. Harris before the committee, and said that questions were asked those gentlemen that he would never have answered. He believed that treason did exist in the State, it existed in his own county and had tried to crush him to the earth.

Mr. Blythe, of Henderson said, that in charging that Union men had been persecuted, he merely meant that they had been calumniated, abused and stigmatized as being in favor of negro suffrage and negro equality. He had expressly disclaimed any reflection upon the Judiciary of the State. He also disclaimed any knowledge of any plotting for the overthrow of the State government. He entertained the opinion of Judge Ruffin, that the existing government was a military government, and that the Supreme Court would so declare it. He also held that the President had no authority to establish a civil government without the sanction of Congress.

Mr. Davis, of Franklin, said:—Mr. Speaker: I, too, rise to a question of privilege. Since the gentleman from Gaston has alluded to what transpired before the Judiciary committee, and as the article which has been read, at the instance of the gentleman from Surry, reflects upon that committee, as a member of it and in vindication of its course, I will state my understanding of the matter in issue. Some time since, when the gentleman from Wake, (Mr. Russ,) whose strong and life-long attachment to the Union is well known, introduced his resolutions, declaring the loyalty of the people of North Carolina, the gentleman from Henderson (Mr. Blythe) stated that he could not vote for them, because they were untrue as to his part of the State, and that in his county, Union men were persecuted, and that they were persecuted in the Courts. The gentleman from Surry, (Mr. Waugh) whose devotion to the Union is only equalled by his patriotic devotion to North Carolina and to her honor, introduced a resolution instructing the Judiciary committee to inquire into the alleged acts of abuse and persecution, to the end, as stated by him, that if these charges were true, steps might be taken to punish the guilty and prevent a recurrence of such outrages. The charge was a grave one, involving the character of the Judiciary of the State and the Solicitors who prosecute in her name. The law, which in this respect, is but the utterance of the sentiment of all honest, brave and good men, abhors presecution, and the Judge or Solictor who would avail himself of his official position to persecute anybody, high or low, rich or poor, Union men or secessionists, white men or black men, should have his official robes torn from him, and be sent in disgrace and infamy from his high position.—Mr. Davis knew of no species of official malfeasance baser than this, and he would go to the utmost extent to impeach and punish any officer who might be guilty of it. None but base cowards delight in persecution.

The gentleman from Henderson came before the committee and was examined, and as the gentleman from Gaston has thought proper to allude to what transpired before that committee, it may not be improper for me to state now, that his testimony does not show any case of persecution before the Courts or otherwise. On the contrary he only instanced one case of a quarrel and fight, between a Union man and another who claimed the right to attend a Union meeting. The latter was indicted, prosecuted and convicted by a Union Solicitor before a Union Judge. After this fight, a number of returned Union soldiers banded together in a riotous manner, beat and maltreated the alleged secessionist, for which they were indicted by the same Union Solicitor and some of them were punished by a Union Judge. The sum of it is, that some Union men were guilty of a violation of the law and were prosecuted for it before a Union Judge and by a Union Solicitor, and this is called "persecution of Union men." The testimony has this extent and no more.—All of it shows a fair, an honest and an impartial administration of justice, in which the Judges and Solicitors of North Carolina, preserve her ancient fair-fame as a law abiding and law enforcing State.

The gentleman from Henderson requested that the Senator from Rutherford (Mr. Harris) and the gentleman from Gaston (Mr. Jenkins) should be examined before the Committee.—Mr. Harris was examined. No questions were put to him or to Mr. Jenkins or to any one else relative to their trip to Washington City or their business there. No interrogatories of any such purport were propounded to them, or to either of them, and I appeal to the gentleman from Gaston to know if this is not true?

Mr. Jenkins.—The statement is true. No such questions were asked.

Mr. Davis.—Now Mr. Speaker, I pronounce the statements contained in the paper which has been read at the Clerk's desk, a slander upon the Judiciary Committee,—a slander of the same character with those persistently and systematically circulated against the honest people of the State of North Carolina for months past. A people who, when the war ended and the armies of the South surrendered, with a manly dignity and with a quiet unanimity, unparalelled in the history of nations, gave in their adhesion to the Union, and returned to the sweet pursuits of peace to rebuild their shattered fortunes. The history of the world cannot show a disbanded soldiery who returned so quietly and so orderly to their various pursuits, and the charge that they do not mean to abide faithfully the results of the war is a base, and mischievous slander.

But the gentleman from Gaston says, he believes that there is treason in North Carolina—that he never heard of such questions as were asked by the Committee. Well, sir, since he has alluded to that, I will state some of the questions propounded. Witnesses were asked if they knew of any persecutions of Union men. No evidence, except a solitary instance, was produced of it. They were asked if any Judges or Solicitors were known to neglect their duties or to prosecute any man because he was a Union man. They answered "No." On the contrary, that they discharged their duties faithfully. They were asked if they knew of any man or set of men who were disobedient to the laws,—if they knew of any person or persons who, by word or deed, counselled, aided, advised or in any way abetted opposition to the Union or encouraged disobedience to her laws, or to the constituted authorities of the United States? They answered "No." They were asked if they knew any one disloyal to the Union? The answer, like the others, was "No." The question was then asked if any one was known to conspire against the State or to counsel or advise its overthrow? This question was answered affirmatively, as much to my astonishment as any question propounded could have been, to the gentleman from Gaston. But, sir, the evidence will be before the House, and I have been led into this digression by the remarks of the member from Gaston.

There may be treason in the land, as the gentleman says he believes there is. It may be so, and perhaps the difference may be one of opinion as to where it exists. I shall not say where it is, but there is a law, passed at the last session of this General Assembly, which consigns to the whipping post and to infamy the man who conspires to overthrow the State government. The gentleman's friend, the Senator from Ruthertord, I see from the Journals, voted for that law. I am always willing to abide by the laws, while they exist, whether they are of my own enactment or not.

But sir, after all, it only verifies the wisdom of that Poet of nature, Mr. Burns, when he sings:

"But, loyalty truce! We're on dangerous ground,
For who knows how opinions may alter?
The doctrine that to-day is loyalty sound,
To-morrow may bring us the halter."

The law doubtless was passed to catch a different class of men, but let that pass. I cannot trust myself to speak of the scorn and contempt which I feel for self-branded traitors, who, confessing their perjury, would hang men in 1866, for what they taught them in 1856; who after having sowed broadcast for twenty years, the seeds of secession, and of sectional strife and hatred, which have produced so much of bitterness and war, instead of pouring oil upon the troubled waters, now, not content with the wreck and desolation around them, are sowing broad-cast the seeds of mistrust, and loosing instead of cementing the bands of Union.

We are told, sir, that our doom is fixed, "traitor and his deserved fall," &c. It may be so. I am no politician. I was never a secessionist I have never known any policy beyond the honest expression of my views, and I would rather carry with me to the dungeon or to the stake, the consciousness of good intentions and an honest devotion to civil liberty, and to the honor, the welfare and the happiness of my countrymen, than to wear pro-consular robes, or the purple itself, obtained by base sycophancy and by slandering as brave, as honest and as truthful a people as the sun ever shown upon.

There is such a thing as conscience, that will not sleep always, and I had rather hear the whip of asps or the sting of scorpions, than to carry in my bosom, though asleep, the consciences of such men.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

---

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhoea, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

---

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

---

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my base for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now ured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

---

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

SEPT. 1st. 1866.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF

HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

W. H. CROW, Gen. Agent.
Oct 11-3m Office North of Capitol.

One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres.
